INTRODUCTION

God has gone to the greatest lengths imaginable to pursue you – He sent His Son Jesus to rescue you from sin and bring you into His family. God doesn't want you to just know information about Him. He wants you to have a deep relationship with Him as your Father.

This booklet has been put together to help you deepen your relationship with God. God continues to speak in meaningful, transformative way through the Bible and He desires you to draw near to Him by devoting yourself to reading His living word and prayer.

A variety of reading plans have been included along with suggestions of timeframes for reading them.

It is suggested that your DNA group agree on a bible reading plan and timeframe all together. When you meet up with your DNA group you could choose to share and discuss how God has taught and transformed you during your recent readings or you could do a reading together. As well as this, follow the three simple steps of DNA groups on the following page.

It doesn't matter which plan you choose or how long you take to do it. What matters is that you're taking time to nourish your faith by drawing near to God through his life-giving word. If you 'fall behind', don't be discouraged! Open up your Bible and expect the Lord to meet you wherever you are.

Bible reading shouldn't be a burden that crushes you. Rather the discipline of personal devotions can lead you into a deep enjoyment of the grace God has already given us in the gospel.

DNA GROUPS

A DNA group is a smaller group of three or four believers of the same gender who commit to meeting outside the large group's meeting time. This is the place to study the Bible and be known deeply by another.

DNA's are simple. You're going to do three things every week:

1. DISCOVER

Each person shares what they have heard from God in the chapters of scripture they read the past week (look at "REAP" above for help in studying the bible). Then share about how you can obey what you have learned from the bible.

2. NURTURE

Each person spends time repenting of their sin. Sharing how you have sinned against God this past week (the accountability questions below can help this process). But then spend time speaking out loud to yourself and to one another the good news of Jesus' work for us. Hearing the gospel spoken out loud enables us to believe.

3. ACT

Consider opportunities to live out what you have studied. Also talk about how your relationship and spiritual conversations have gone with your non-believing friends. Share how you plan to weave this person into your community. Then pray for them by name for God to save them.

List some people you are praying for:

ACCOUNTABILITY QUESTIONS

Ask these questions of each member of your DNA. Not every question has to be asked, but be as thorough as necessary. This is a safe, honest, vulnerable and confidential environment.

- × How has your anger or fear or anxiety or addiction shown up this week? How does that reveal what you're trusting in besides God? What truth or promise of the gospel do you need to hear and believe to trust in God again?
- × How have you wasted time?

THE REAP METHOD

1. READ

Open your Bible and ask the Holy Spirit to teach, correct, and train you (2 Timothy 3:16). As you're reading, ask these questions:

What is happening in this passage? What things are emphasized, repeated, related?

What do you see about God? What is God doing in this passage?

What do you see about man?

2. EXAMINE

Spend some time reflecting. Ask yourself these questions, and write down your thoughts:

How do you think the author wants his audience to respond?

What do you learn about God's character?

What wrong beliefs about God and myself did I have?

3. APPLY

After examining the passage, apply the text to your own life. Ask yourself these questions:

How do I need to repent? What truths do I need to believe? What false beliefs must I turn from?

What can I do – empowered by the Holy Spirit – today to apply this passage?

4. PRAY

Pray through the passage and your application, asking God to change your heart and to change your life, based on the time you've spent in God's Word.

AN EXAMPLE OF REAP

Date: 8th April 2019

Scripture: Mark 12:28-31

1. READ

Jesus tells the scribes that the most important commandment is to love God with all your heart, soul, mind and strength. He continues, saying that the second most important commandment is to love your neighbor as yourself.

2. EXAMINE

God made us with different faculties: a heart to have emotion, a mind to think, strength to do, and a soul that is eternal, and I am commanded to love God with the fullness of all of my faculties. This is the first and greatest commandment; every other area of obedience flows out of this.

Jesus says the command to love our neighbors is like the first commandment. Loving others as myself is somehow connected to loving God with all of my being.

3. APPLY

Do I think of loving God with all that I am as the greatest and first call on my life? No. I have reduced obedience to praying or being kind to my family and friends, or fighting the desire to lie.

Do I love God with my mind: Do I seek to study His Word daily, think about Him and learn about Him?

Do I love God with my heart and soul: Do I have affection toward something that is stronger than my affection toward Him? Do I love God with my strength: Do I actually live out his Word rather than just knowing his Word?

I can think of several people that I am far from loving well. How is that lack of love for others connected to my lack of love for God?

4. PRAY

Father, I confess that I can't muster up the love that you want from me. Give me a new mind, a new heart, a new soul, and new strength, and give me the ability to love you fully with all of my faculties. I pray for my mind specifically – that I would honor you today with my thoughts and love you well. I pray for my relationship with my father and my brother. Help me to love them because I love you and you made them!
